The Story of Ibrahim عليه السلام ...

Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام was a great prophet of Allah سبحانه وتعالى. He was given the title Khalil (friend) of Allah سبحانه وتعالى. He worshipped and dedicated his life to Allah سبحانه وتعالى.

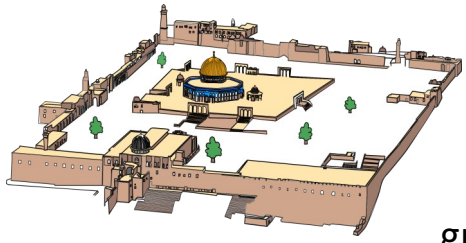
Idol Worship

When Ibrahim عليه السلام was a youngster he saw people making idols. The people would worship the same idols that they made themselves. Even at a young age, Ibrahim عليه السلام knew this was wrong.

Zamzam

Ibrahim عليه السلام was commanded to leave baby Ismail and Hajar عليها السلام in an empty desert. When their water ran out, Allah سبحانه وتعالى provided Zamzam water for them.

Tawheed



Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام obeyed Allah سبحانه وتعالى and had great faith in Allah سبحانه وتعالى. Allah سبحانه وتعالى told Ibrahim عليه السلام to rebuild the Ka'bah and Masjid Al-Aqsa.

Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام had two sons, Ismail عليه السلام and Ishaq عليه السلام. Our beloved Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was from the descendants of Prophet Ismail عليه السلام. Many great prophets including Yusuf, Musa, Isa, Dawud, Yahya عليه السلام were from Prophet Ishaq عليه السلام.

ZamZam

Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ was commanded by Allah ﷻ to take his wife Hajar ﷺ * and baby son Ismail to an empty desert. He left them between the hills of Safa and Marwah.

Ibrahim ﷺ left Hajar ﷺ and Ismail some water and dates. Soon the water and food finished and baby Ismail started crying.

To look for water, Hajar ﷺ ran up the hill of Safa. She looked in every direction for any sign of water, or any person who could help them. But she saw nothing.

Hajar ﷺ then ran up the hill of Marwah. Again she searched for help and water. Still there was nothing. Because she was so worried, she ran between Safa and Marwah seven times to look.

When she returned, Allah ﷻ gave them His help. A spring of water miraculously gushed out of the sand near baby Ismail ﷺ. This water is called Zamzam.

 Hajar ﷺ was Ibrahim's ﷺ second wife. His first wife was Sarah ﷺ, the mother of Ishaq ﷺ.

The Prophets were special people selected by Allah ﷻ. Their job was to teach the people about Allah ﷻ. They also taught them that if they followed the guidance then Allah ﷻ will reward them with Jannah.

The Prophets also taught their people that Allah ﷻ is One (Tawheed).

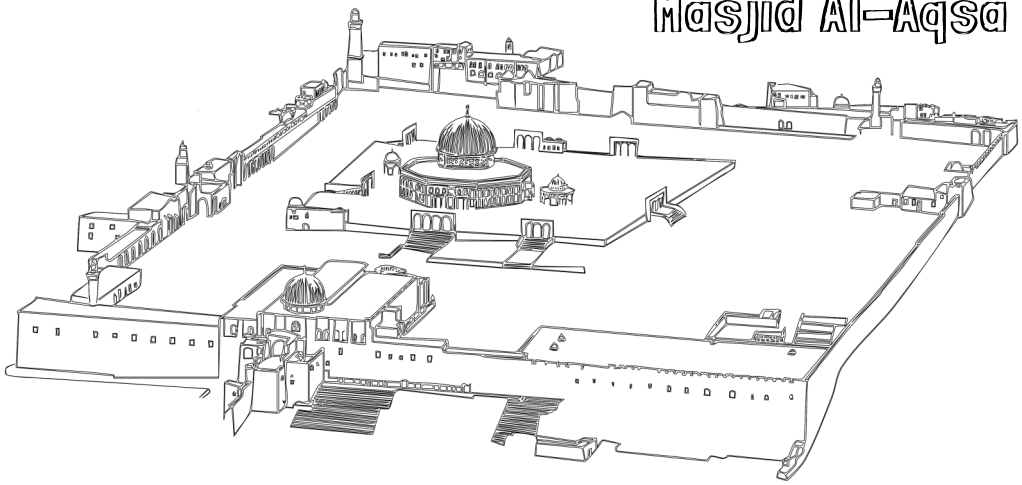
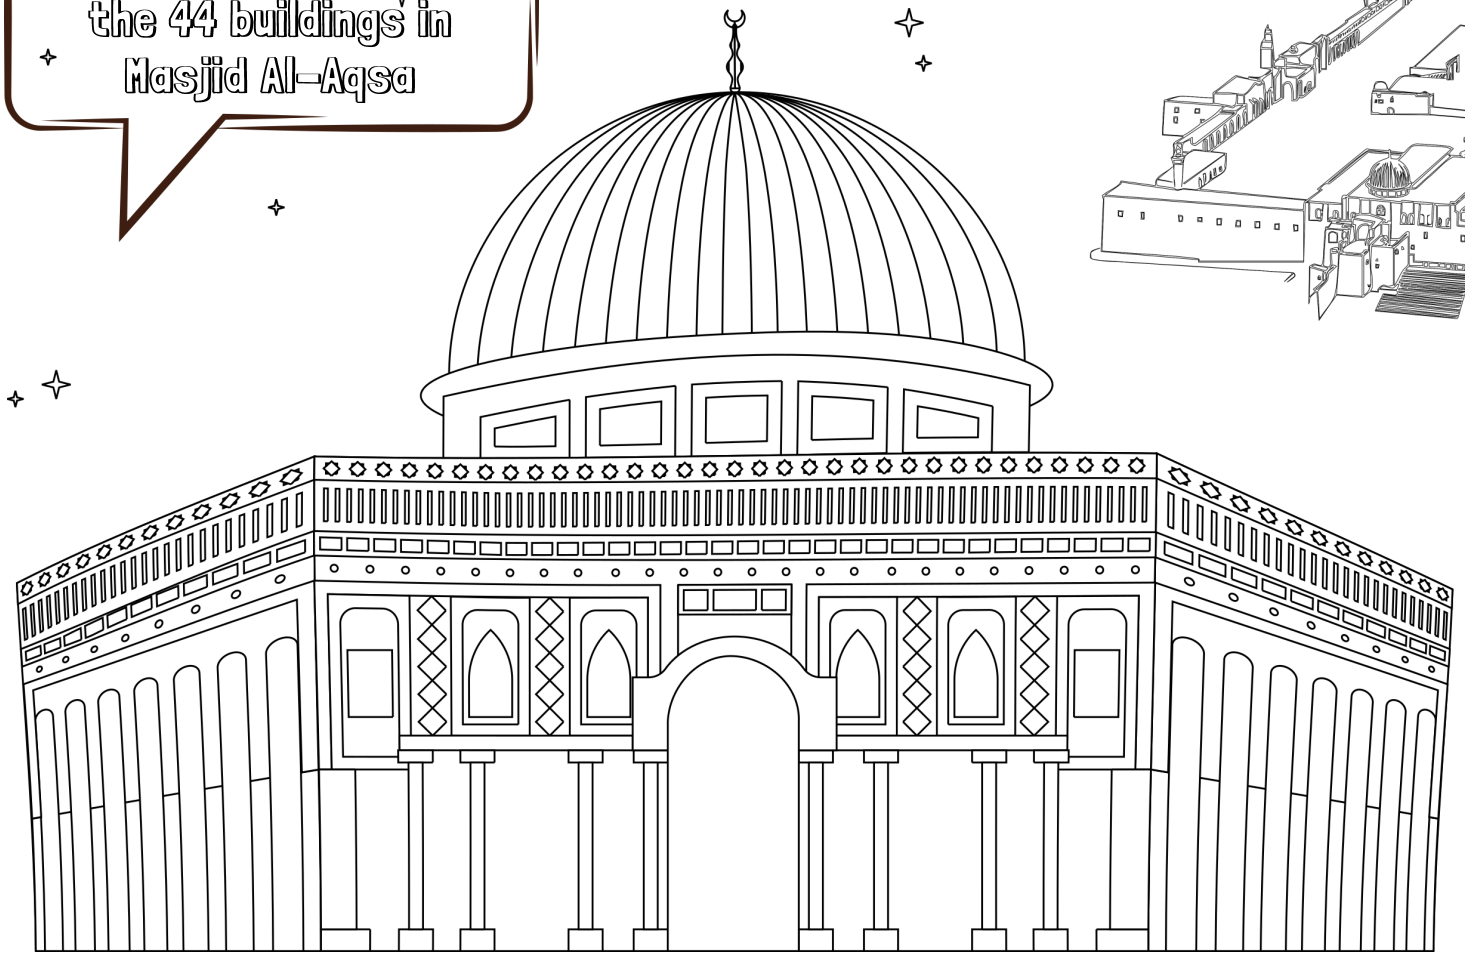
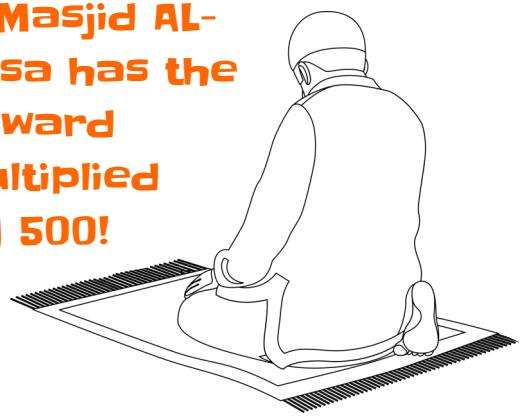
This is 'Dome of the Rock' which is one of the 44 buildings in Masjid Al-Aqsa

Masjid Al-Aqsa





A single prayer in Masjid AL-Aqsa has the Reward multiplied by 500!



Masjid Al-Aqsa is actually an area of land in Jerusalem that includes the golden dome Masjid known as the 'Dome of the Rock'. The grey domed masjid is known as the Musallah (prayer hall of) Al-Aqsa and as Masjid Qibly.

Time to Think

1 Fitra

When Ibrahim ﷺ was young, he knew that Idol worshipping was wrong.

2 Using Intellect

Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ saw the stars and wondered if they were God. When he saw the brighter moon, he thought could this be God? At sunrise, he wondered if the bright sun could be God? Then he realised that there was only one God who created everything including the sun, moon and the stars.

3 Special Places

Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ went to Jerusalem and rebuilt Masjid Al-Aqsa at the exact place where prophet Adam ﷺ had built it.

This land called Masjid al-Aqsa and indeed all of Jerusalem is sacred and blessed.

Masjid al-Aqsa is the third most sacred place in Islam.

4 Trust in Allah ﷻ

When Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ was thrown into the fire, Ibrahim ﷺ knew that Allah ﷻ was with him and that Allah ﷻ would save him. Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ always trusted Allah ﷻ throughout his life.

5 Dedicated to Allah ﷻ

Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ was dedicated to Allah ﷻ. This means that he would always obey Allah ﷻ. This dedication to Allah ﷻ earned him a very high status amongst the prophets.

The final messenger, Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was a descendant of Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ. He came to all mankind with guidance from Allah ﷻ.

We should also follow this guidance.
