

Ramadhan is over when we have
Eid.

Ramadhan Is...

© 2005 Umm Publications
Copyright of the words not pictures.

Ramadhan is praying salat-ul-Tarawih. This is a special prayer.

Ramadhan is 29 or 30 days (depending on the moon cycle).

Ramadhan is eating and drinking again after the sunsets. It is sharing our food at iftar.

Ramadhan is waking up for suhoor. We eat and drink before we begin to fast.

Ramadhan is to stop eating and drinking just before salat-ul-Fajr.

Ramadhan is keeping away from doing bad deeds.

Ramadhan is doing as many good deeds as you can.

Ramadhan is to not eat and drink during the day.

Ramadhan is reciting the Qur'an as much as you can.

Ramadhan is giving sadaqah as much as you can.