

1

- Adam(AS) and Hawwa(AS) were sent down on earth, and here they had children. They had two sets of twins, Habil and his sis & Qabil, and his sis.
- One of them was a Shepherd and the other was a farmer.
- Adam(AS) loved them both equally, when they reached the age of marriage Allah commanded Adam(AS) to marry the Habil's sister to Qabil and Qabil's sister to Habil.

2

- But Qabil was not happy with the idea b'coz his sister was more beautiful than Habil's sister, so he wanted to get married to his own sister.
- Adam(AS) sought help from Allah to solve the problem, Allah commanded both of them to give a sacrifice, and whosever sacrifice is accepted, then he shall have his way.
- Habil offered the fattest lamb or sheep that he had, Qabil offered the worst crops that he had in his store house.

3

- Allah accepted the sacrifice of Habil.
- This made Qabil very angry, he said 'I will kill you so that you cannot marry my sister.' Habil tried to cool him down he said, "Allah accepts only from those people who fear Allah."
- Qabil did not accept it he became more angry, and started putting the blame on others. He blamed his father for making dua for Habil and not for him.

4

- One night, Habil did not return from tending his flock, so Adam(AS) sent Qabil to look for him. When he found him, he provoked him, your offering was accepted and mine was not. Habil said Allah accepts only from those people who are righteous, this made Qabil angrier. I will kill you, he said. Habil was the stronger one but he controlled himself.
- Thus, Qabil took a huge rock and threw it on his brother and killed him. As soon as this happened he was sorry.

5

- Now, Qabil did not know what to do with the dead body of his brother, so he carried it around, till Allah sent two crows, who fought each other and one crow killed the other, then the crow dug the ground and pushed the body into the mud and covered it. So Qabil was ashamed even more, I could not even think like this crow. So he dug the ground and buried his brother.
