

Muharram & New Year Worksheet

Name:.....

06/12/10

Fill in the gaps:

Part 1

1. _____ is the first Islamic month.
2. The Islamic year we are in now is _____.
3. The Islamic calendar is known as the "_____ calendar". This is because our calendar starts from the time our prophet Mohammed ﷺ left _____ to go to _____. This is called migration.
4. The Arabic word for migration is H_____ >
5. The Islamic year is written as "1432 A.H.". A.H. means "A_____ H_____". You see this on calendars.

Part 2

1. Muharram is a very virtuous and blessed month. It is known as "_____'s month". There is even more reward for keeping fasts and worshipping Allah in this month.
2. Our prophet ﷺ has said: "The best of fasts besides the fast of R_____ are the fasts of _____" (Muslim).
3. Many hundreds of years ago, on the 10th day of Muharram Allah gave Prophet _____ ﷺ and his people freedom from Pharaoh. To mark (and celebrate) this, the _____ used to keep a fast (Roza) on the _____ of Muharram.

4. Our prophet ﷺ also kept this fast, and advised us to keep this fast as well. However he told us to keep a fast on either _____ and _____ or _____ and _____.
5. This fast is known as the fast of _____, which means _____ or tenth.
6. Before the fasts of Ramadhan, the fast of _____ was _____ (compulsory).

Part 3

The New Islamic Year has started; this is a good chance to make some resolutions (promises). Write down all the things you will try to do in this New Year.

	My resolutions are...
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10	