

Allah has 99 Names and whoever believes in their meanings and acts
accordingly, will enter Paradise.

Hadith - Sahih Bukhari 8:419, Narrated Abu Huraira

---

Al-Khaliq – The Creator

Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala has created everything!

Al-Aleem – The All Knowing

Things I want Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala to know about me.

Things I would be embarrassed for Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala to know about me.

As-Sami – The All Hearing

Things I want Allah subhana hu wa ta'ala to hear me say

Things I don't want Allah subhana hu wa ta'ala to hear me say

Al-Basir – The All Seeing

Things I want Allah subhana hu wa ta'ala to see me do

Things I don't want Allah subhana hu wa ta'ala to see me do

Al-Latif – The Gracious

Things Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala has given me and my family

Ash-Shakur – The Appreciative

Things I am thankful for

Al-Ali – The Highest

Allah subhanahu wa ta'ala is the Most High.

Al-Karim – The Generous

Ways that I can be generous to others just like Allah subhana hu wa ta'ala has been generous to me.

Al-Wadud – The Loving One

I love Allah subhanhu wa ta'ala. He loves me.

Here are some people I love and things I love.

Ar-Rahman – The Most Giving

Allah has given us so many gifts. Some gifts are things that we do not think about.. like our bodies. Other gifts are people in our life.

Ar-Raheem – The Most Forgiving

It is very important to forgive someone when they do something wrong. Allah is the Most Forgiving. He forgives us when we do things that are not nice.

In order for us to show Allah that we are sorry and ask Him to forgive us we should:

- pray and ask Him for forgiveness
- promise that we will not do it again
- do good deeds to replace the bad ones

Good deeds I can do to replace bad ones
