

Seeking Laylatul Qadr

A night better than a thousand months!

Assalamu Alaykum!

A message for you!

We hope that you have had a wonderful Ramadan with your family so far, and that this pack will help you to make the most of the last 10 days! We ask you to remember us, and the entire Muslim Ummah, in your du'as.

A message for grown ups!

This Ramadan, the LSE Islamic Society are blessed to be partnering with StudentsForSyria to raise money to support Syrian children impacted by the conflict.

The fundraising project is Segarona Kebarona - a special needs centre located in Antakya, Turkey. It is a wonderful facility that provides psycho-social support for children suffering from trauma as a result of the civil war. The centre also supports children with special educational needs that require that extra support in their development.

Often, when we conceptualise wars, we can be forgetful about the struggle of those affected to resume normal life afterwards. This is an amazing project that helps tackle that to ensure the Syrian children are still able to lead happy, healthy lives in spite of the devastating conflict.

This is a free resource, which we pray brings benefit to your family. However, we would really appreciate it if you could please donate anything within your capacity to help us fund the special needs centre, insha'Allah.

www.justgiving.com/fundraising/lseramadan2020

Jazakallah Khayr and may Allah reward you abundantly! Ameen.

BISMILLAH!

Ramadan

is here!

It was narrated that Sayyiduna Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه said: "The Messenger of Allah (Peace be upon him) said:

'There has come to you Ramadan, a blessed month, which Allah Almighty has enjoined you to fast. In it the gates of heavens are opened and the gates of Hell are closed, and every devil is chained up. In it Allah has a night which is better than a thousand months; whoever is deprived of its goodness is indeed deprived.'
(Sunan an-Nasai)

Ramadan is a very special time of the year for Muslims. This year, Ramadan might feel a bit different, but we think it might just be the best one ever!

Allah, Glorious and Exalted, has placed huge blessings in this month for us all. The reward for each good action is multiplied many times!

The last 10 days

Laylatul Qadr is the 'night of power'. This was the night in which the Qur'an was first revealed. We don't know exactly when this night was, however, the Prophet's ﷺ wife Sayyidah Aisha رضى الله عنها told us that:

“Allah’s Apostle said, ‘Search for the Night of Qadr in the odd nights of the last ten days of Ramadan.’

Therefore, during the last 10 nights of Ramadan, Muslims should look for this night, and worship Allah as much as they can. The Prophet ﷺ also said:

“Whoever stands in (Prayer) in Laylatul-Qadr with faith and seeking reward then his previous sins are forgiven.”

This tells us about the huge blessings and reward that we can gain by worshipping Allah on this blessed night!

LSE ISoc brings you the 'Seeking Laylatul Qadr' activity pack, to help you make the best of these extra special nights. Each day, we have given you a task to complete, as well as daily reminders to help you with worshipping and remembering Allah.

Allah SWT says:

“The Night of Decree is better than a thousand months”

[Quran 97:3]

Remember!

You may need to use the internet to help you with some of these tasks. Before you do:

Always ask permission from an adult before you go online.

Do not talk to strangers online.

Tell an adult if you see something that upsets or worries you.

Do not share personal details online, or post/send pictures

And remember, not everything on the internet is true, you should ask an adult to check if you are not sure.

A little guide...

We use special words to show respect and honour Prophets and important people in Islam.

صلى الله عليه وسلم
Sallallahu 'Alihi Wasallam

Peace and blessings of Allah be upon him

Used after the name of Prophet Muhammad

It is sometimes written like this:

ﷺ

سبحانه وتعالى

Subhanahu wa ta'ala

The Most Glorified, the Most High

Used after the name of Allah

عليه السلام

Alayhi as-salām

peace be upon him

Used after the names of the Prophets

رضي الله عنه

RadiAllahu `anhu

May Allah be please with him

Used after the names of the companions of the Prophet

رضي الله عنها

RadiAllahu `anha

May Allah be please with her

We also use the title 'Sayyiduna' (for men) or 'Sayyidah' (for ladies) as a way of showing respect. These titles show their roles as leaders of the Muslim ummah (community/family).
