

Worship

means

doing things that

ALLAAH

loves

We worship only Allaah

We worship Him using our tongues by saying Laa ilaaha illAllaah

reading the Qur~aan

saying du`aas

We worship Him using our arms and legs by praying

fasting

being good to our parents

We worship Him in our hearts by

We worship Him by giving money to poor people

to help to spread Islaam

loving Allaah

hoping in Allaah

trusting Allaah

fearing Allaah

What is worship?

Put a tick next to the right answer

- Worship means doing things that make Allaah angry.
- Worship means doing things that your friends like.
- Worship means doing whatever Allaah loves.

Who is the One that we must worship?

Put a tick next to the right answer

- We should worship only Allaah and no-one else.
- We should worship Allaah and Jesus (‘Eesaa ‘alayhis-salaam).
- We should worship Muḥammad sallallaahu ‘alayhi wa sallam.

Did you do see anyone worshipping Allaah today?

What did they do?

For Parents and other Educators

Please see the book Sharḥ Usoolith-Thalaathah, of Shaykh Saaliḥ al-Fowzaan (one of the senior scholars alive today, ḥafizahullaah), Daarul-Imaam Aḥmad Edition, pages 94- 97 for definitions, types and examples of worship.

The above excerpt was translated into English by Aboo Talḥah Daawood Burbank rahimahullaah and can be found by listening to this lesson, or by reading pages 5 to 9 of this document.

This document was written by Madeeḥah bint Nafees Aḥmad and was checked by Abul-` Abbaas Moosaa Richardson.