

We Are Going Back To Allaah...

Allaah is He Who gave us life
And He'll take it away
We don't know when we all will die
But die we shall one day.

No one lives forever here
Not on earth, my friend
But when we die we'll have a new life
That will never end.

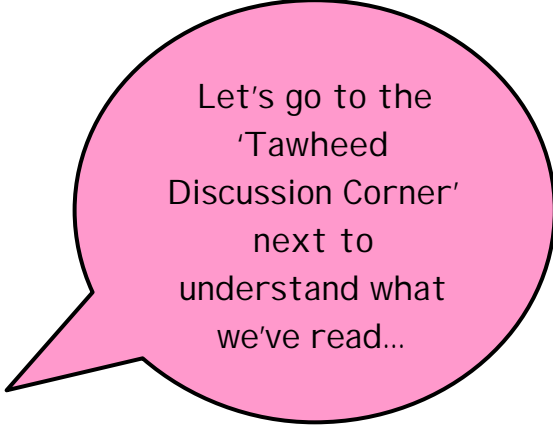

Then in our next life we will be
- Happiest or sad
Allaah will judge us and decide
If we've been good or bad.

So now's the time to please Allaah
A good Muslim, to be
Because when Allaah takes our soul
It's too late then you see.

It's now we've got to make a start
There is no time to spare
We're all going back to Allaah, see
For that we must prepare!

Come this way with me dear children
I know where to start
We have to learn about Allaah
And start to help our heart...
