

Three Questions

Mini-Workbook

© 2010 Umm An-Nu'maan <http://amuslimchildisborn.blogspot.com/>

O child, dear child, there are three questions you will be asked,
Memorize and know them, this is your task.
Get ready, get set, are you ready to go?
By the end of this lesson, those three questions you'll know!

INSHA ALLAAH!

Two of the three questions start with the same word:

من /Who

Here is the first question. Write the correct word in each box.

ربك؟ is your Rabb?

Here is the second question. Write the correct word in each box.

نبيك؟ is your Prophet?

This is the last question. This question starts with the word ما/What.

Trace the word and then write it in the box below.

ما دينك؟

is your Religion?

Practice writing each of the three questions neatly.

Question # 2

ما دينك؟

Question # 1

من دينك؟

Question # 3

من دينك؟

Did you notice anything else that each of the sentences have in common?

Who is your Lord?

من ربك؟

What is your religion?

ما دينك؟

Who is your Prophet?

من نبيك؟

What do you notice? How are these questions alike?

Now it's your turn to put these questions in the correct order. Below, each sentence has been taken apart and all of the words are mixed together. Cut the words out and glue them together correctly on the next page insha'Allaah.

نبيك؟

من

ربك؟

من

دينك؟

ما

The sentences should read:

Question # 1

Question # 2

Question # 3

Now you have learned the three questions that you will be asked. Do you know the correct answer to each of these questions?

من ربك؟

Man rabbuk/rabbuki?

Who is your Lord?

Answer:

ما دينك؟

Ma deennuk/deennuki?

What is your religion?

Answer:

من نبيك؟

Man nabiyuk/nabbiyuki?

Who is your Prophet?

Answer:

Answer page for teacher/parent

Page 7: each sentence contains the words: 'is your' in the exact spot/location of the sentence.

Pages 10-12: The correct answer for each of the questions is:

Question #1: Rabbi Allaah/Allaah is my Rabb (Lord).

Question #2: Deeni al-Islam/My religion is Islaam.

Question #3: Nabiyyee Muhammad/Muhammad is my Prophet.

Alhamdulillah _____ knows each of the three questions he/she will be asked
and he/she knows the answer to each question!

Teacher/Parent

Date

