Al-Laam Al Jalalah

(The Rule for pronouncing the exalted name of Allah)

اللام الجلالة

- This rule concerns the pronunciation of the Laam in the word Allah or Allahuma.
- There are three possible cases:
 1. Either there will be a Fatah or Dhamma before the word Allah
 2. Or Allah will be the first word in an ayah.
 3. Or there will be a Kasrah before the word Allah
- In the first two cases, (i.e. Allah is the first word or there is a Fatah or a Dhammah before it) the Laam in Allah will be heavy, i.e. will be read with a rounding of the lips.

Example:

اللام الجلالة

- In the third case, where there is a Kasrah behind the word Allah, the Laam in Allah will be light, i.e. will be read by sharp opening of the lips (stretching lightly to the side) and keeping the tongue straight.

Example:

قُلِ اَللّٰهُمَّ	دِيْنَ اَللّٰهِ	بِاللّٰهِ	بِاللّٰهِ
------------------	-----------------	-----------	-----------

Practice Al-Laam Al Jalalah

- Identify where the Laam in Allah is recited heavily in the following verses:

Type of Case	Example
There is dhammah (Dhammah) before the word Allah	إِذَا جَاءَ نَصْرُ اللَّهِ وَالْفَتْحُ
There is a Fat-hah (Fatah) before the word Allah	قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ
Allah is the starting word	اللَّهُ الصَّمَدُ

Practice Al-Laam Al Jalalah
